

want to make the most of mediation?

This 4-hour short course has been specifically designed for in-house counsel who want to:

- appreciate when outside counsel is and is not necessary
- learn the essential features of the mediation process
- prepare effectively for mediation, including when to mediate, selection of the mediator and who should attend
- be equipped with the skills needed in mediation advocacy
- maximise settlement benefits

Designed for small in-house counsel teams this course is industry specific in terms of issues and case studies. Materials will be supplied.
