

Central California Chapter of ACR Spring Event

*Explore the Design and Development of
Organizational Dispute Resolution Systems*

Many Professions - Many Paths

Health Care - Education - Workplace - Courts - Elder Care

Friday, March 26, 2010

9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Calif State Univ. Fresno

Smittcamp Alumni House

2625 Matoian Way (on CSUF Campus)

Adult & Student ACR-CCC Members: $20

Adult non-members: $55 includes membership
Student non-members: $35

www.mediate.com/acrcentralca

(Map, Parking Information, & Membership Application)

RSVP by March 16th

Christina Cassinerio: cmcass@gmail.com
(Reservations made after 3/16: $65.00)

Fee collected at the door.

Guest Presenter

Lin Inlow

Lin Inlow is the Director of Education and Mediation at The Consortium on Negotiation and Conflict Resolution at Georgia State University. She administers the University System of Georgia's Mediation Program and consults with 35 institutions of the Georgia system on the development and implementation of conflict management programs.

As an experienced mediator and program administrator, Lin has mediated disputes; designed conflict management systems; written/produced mediation teaching materials; trained mediators from a variety of industries; developed mentoring programs for mediators; facilitated communities of practice for ombudspersons; evaluated conflict management programs; and conducted organizational conflict assessments.

Lin served as a member of the Carter Center facilitation team working in the Netherlands on the Sudan Peace Initiative. Lin has consulted on the development and implementation of conflict management in the higher education systems of South Africa, Poland, Scotland, and England.

Following lunch and the business meeting, attendees will have an opportunity for free consultation with Lin!

- Reknoned Speaker
- Panel Discussion
- Networking
- Fantastic Lunch