Guest Presenter: Colin Rule

Learn how you can use new communication technologies to expand and improve your practice. Join us for a very special presentation by Colin Rule, founder and director of Online Dispute Resolution (ODR) for Ebay and PayPal, and the Online Public Disputes Project. Colin will discuss how he uses cutting edge information and communication technology to help people resolve disputes online. He will present the nuts and bolts of ODR (software, hardware, techniques, etc.), discuss ethical and security issues, and facilitation of public disputes online. This presentation will be interactive with potential opportunities for hands-on practice. Bring your laptop!
