

Association of Missouri Mediators, Inc.
11 Annual Conference
October 31, 2009
Hulston Hall, MU School of Law,
Columbia, MO

MOBar CLE Credits provided

8:30 AM Registration opens. Continental breakfast served.

9:00 AM Plenary Session: Making Mediation Your Day Job 1.60 hrs MCLE
Dr. Tammy Lenski

Turn your dream into a reality, or take it to the next level. Have a healthy and successful career as a mediator using skills you already possess! Discover how to build a financially viable and personally fulfilling practice, how to market mediation in a way that is consistent with who you are, how to use simple technical tools for marketing and managing your business, and building an effective web presence.

Dr. Lenski will appear by two-way teleconference

Attendees are encouraged to read Dr. Lenski's book, Making Mediation Your Day Job, in preparation for the conference. Available at Amazon.com or Barnes & Nobles, or for free shipping price of $ 14.95 at www.makingmediationyourdayjob.com

10:30 AM Morning break and networking

11:00AM Roundtable on Getting into the Mediation Business 1 hr MCLE

Panelists: Ronnie Beach (Kansas City), Randy Hoerschgen (Jefferson City), Sarah Read (Columbia), and James Reeves (St. Louis). What does it take to develop a mediation business in Missouri? Our panelists are AMM members making money in mediation. This is an interactive session to discuss ideas and exchange information.

12 Noon Luncheon, Awards and Business Meeting

Box lunch followed by AMM's annual meeting and President's Awards follow lunch.

Workshops 1.2 hr MCLE each

1:30 PM Workshop 1: "Mediator Magic – Marketing & Gaining Client Commitment"

Kathleen Bird, JD. Director 7th Circuit Office of Dispute Resolution & instructor, Baker University Masters Program in Conflict Management and Dispute Resolution

2:30 PM Break

2:45 PM Workshop 2: "Mediating with Elderly Participants"

Stephen Stark, JD Elder law attorney & mediator and Karen Digh, Callaway County Public Administrator

3:45 PM Break

4:00 PM Workshop 3: "Mediating Ethically" (1.2 hrs ethics hours)

Meridee Edwards, JD, Mediator and former Chief of the MO Supreme Court Office of Disciplinary Counsel

5:00 PM Networking

Questions: call Jane Rippetto at (573) 442-8904 or Kathleen Bird at (816) 736-8402