

Steven H. Simenowitz, Esq.

Arthur is a rockstar! He was able to move 2 people miles apart into a space where a workable solution was hammered out saving the clients tens of thousands of dollars in unnecessary legal fees. He was an iron fist in a velvet glove and was respectful yet direct, reassuring while still authoritative. I was initially skeptical about retaining him as his professional resume only revealed his vast mastery of corporate and banking law but once I spoke to him, I immediately discovered the compassionate listener that the case demanded. I can't recommend him highly enough.
