

Stuart A. Blander Esq.

Mr. Rosenbloom was the mediator on a complex commercial matter that was the subject of a number of federal and state lawsuits that had been pending for a number of years.

Through his ability to identify and focus upon the parties' core interests, and their respective strengths and weaknesses, Mr. Rosenbloom was able, in the course of a single, one day session, to craft a final settlement.

I was deeply impressed with his skill as a mediator.
