

WE ARE THE DISPUTE RESOLUTION EXPERTS

Massachusetts Dispute Resolution Services (MDRS) has been providing a full range of out-of-court mediation and arbitration services to private individuals, attorneys, business, labor and the insurance community for 25 years. We serve parties who seek equitable settlement of their disputes without the time, expense and frustration which often accompany the more formal trial court system.

MDRS offers parties a first-class panel of more than 35 professional mediators and arbitrators who are experienced attorneys and retired judges. We make it easy for you to choose a neutral with the expertise and substantive knowledge of the area of law involved in your case.

BENEFITS OF DISPUTE RESOLUTION (DR)

Time and Money Savings – Mediation or arbitration cases are completed in days or weeks, and not years, as can be involved in court proceedings. Our simplified procedures mean cost savings over the attorney's fees and litigation costs associated with the court system.

Control over the Process & Outcome – With DR, the selection of the mediator or arbitrator remains in the hand of the parties. The parties also select the time and the place of the resolution session. There are no frustrating delays due to court backlogs. Using mediation, the parties retain control of the outcome of their dispute; it is not placed in the hands of a judge or jury.

Flexibility – Unlike the courts, at MDRS the dispute resolution process selected can be tailored

THE MDRS ADVANTAGE

Our mediation and arbitration services offer many benefits to all parties, whether or not they are represented by counsel. Our inherently flexible services offer our clients the ability to easily tailor the dispute resolution process to the circumstances of their case and the needs and preferences of the disputing parties.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

to fit the individual case involved and the needs and preference of the parties, from non binding mediation to binding arbitration.

Effectiveness – Using DR enhances the prospects of both settlement and satisfaction. Over 90% of mediated cases reach settlement and avoid litigation and the uncertainty of trial.

Communication – Skilled and experienced neutrals improve communication between disputing parties in a guided, controlled and confidential setting, not in a public courtroom.

Fairness – At MDRS, our services are provided by mediators and arbitrators with extensive training and legal experience in the specific area of law involved in each case. Fairness and balance yield reasonable decisions and equitable solutions.
