EXPERIENCE

OPN-Door Communications specializes in creating cooperative environments that allow for effective communication between management, associates, companies and other professionals.

OPN-Door Communications is here to serve as an ally to Organizations by providing them with Professional Development Coaching, Mediation, Conflict Resolution Training, Diversity Workshops and Workplace Investigation services. We accomplish this by hearing your concerns, assessing your situation and providing your team with the right tools and support that allows you to effectively mitigate your situation. This is all done in a confidential and transformative manner.
