

Looking For Resolution?

Discuss your concerns with a results-driven, certified Mediator in a safe and confidential setting.

Friendly and Knowledgeable

As a neutral third party facilitator, a safe environment is provided for each party to express themselves. The parties are assisted in resolving misunderstandings, disagreements and conflicts in a variety of matters. Mediation has a high rate of success. Communication is facilitated while relationships are repaired. During mediation the issues, interests and needs of each party are discovered. The parties create a final binding agreement.

Each party is given the opportunity to be heard, listened to and understood in a peaceful and compassionate setting. The re-building of trust is facilitated. Stress is reduced. Everyone wins.

A Resolution That's Right For You!

Constructive communication is made possible while empowering the parties to come up with a resolution and a binding agreement.

Business/Employment:

The lines of communication need to be open between employees, vendors, contractors, and other businesses in order to maintain integrity and reputation. Mediation can help increase work efficiency and productivity.

Insurance/Personal Injury:

Accidents happen. By addressing the root cause(s) of conflict in a confidential, private setting creative problem-solving can be achieved. Mediation, Arbitration and Hybrid Mediation-Arbitration resolves conflict and avoids lawsuits.

Healthcare:

The healthcare system is a source of confusion and stress. Our service helps clarify concerns, and assists both parties in forming a lasting, binding resolution in an efficient, cost-effective manner.

International:

I have broad experience in understanding a variety of cultural differences and come from a multi-cultural background. I can help to build and strengthen relationships, facilitate cooperation, and provide clarification that can eliminate or reduce conflict.

Construction/Real Estate:

Real estate covers a variety of areas which include, but are not limited to: Construction, landlord/tenant disputes, rental agreements, land use, easements, partition, neighbor disputes, and environmental issues. Real Property conflict can be stressful for every person involved. Mediation establishes and rebuilds relationships while achieving lasting agreements.
