

The International Coach Federation is honored to confer upon

Yvette Durazo

the designation of Associate Certified Coach

The designation is earned by demonstrating knowledge and proficient use of core coaching skills through a comprehensive application and exam process designed to ensure high standards for the coaching profession and the clients it serves.

Awarded on this day July 9, 2012

Janet M. G. Harvey Margaret Moad

ICF President

ICF Executive Director

Valid through:

December 31, 2015

2012

Dear Associate Certified Coach:

Congratulations! ICF has approved your application for the designation of Associate Certified Coach (ACC).

You should feel proud of your accomplishments and this major milestone in your career as a professional coach. We wish you continued success, good fortune, and highly encourage you to pursue your Professional Certified Coach (PCC) credential.

Your ACC credential will expire December 31, 2015. At that time, you will have the opportunity to renew your ACC credential. To renew your ACC credential, you will need to acquire 40 hours of continuing coaching education as well as 10 additional hours of mentor coaching over the next three years.

Your certificate of designation is enclosed. If you are considering professionally framing the certificate, it is suggested to make copies of your certificate for future use. (Please note that additional and/or replacement copies of your certificate are available for $10.)

With Respect,

ICF