

EUGENE MOSCOVITCH, ESQ.

Gene Moscovitch has been a full-time mediator since 1999 specializing in resolving every single type of employment matter including wage and hour class actions. His experience extends to civil rights cases, business/commercial disputes and wrongful death/ catastrophic injury matters. Prior to embarking on this second career, an active trial lawyer for over 25 years having tried in excess of 100 cases. As a mediator he draws upon this extensive courtroom experience to assist disputants on high stakes claims evaluate pivotal evidentiary issues. Gene's diverse background gives him the ability to examine the issues and provide candid feedback when necessary. For example, when faced with a challenging civil rights matter, he draws upon his days as a Deputy Federal Public Defender as he analyzes allegations of excessive force, over detention and police misconduct. This candid approach has earned the respect of both plaintiffs and defense counsel alike as he skillfully delivers realistic insight and analysis and is always focused on resolution.

He commented "I have been fortunate over the last 15 years to be able to work win a profession that I truly love, but more importantly where I feel I can make a difference on an everyday basis." He is known for his warmth, humor and tenacity in getting results which is why he is regarded as one of the most talented mediators in California.
